Reading

John's First Day at School

Exercise 1. Before you read, make a list of three topics that you think are in the reading. Write them in your notebook. Remember the title!

Exercise 2. Pair work. Look at the information on your list. Check the ones that are in the reading.

John had a wonderful day on his first day at school. When he arrived, his best friends ran to hug him. Then, his teacher smiled a lot at the class. He understood everything that she talked about. At recess, he played soccer with his friends. When the bell rang, he walked to his house. On the way home, he found a little puppy, and it followed him home. He asked his mother: "Can I keep the puppy?" "Of course," said his mother.

So, John went to sleep with his new puppy right next to his bed.

Exercise 3. Write the sentences from the story under the correct pictures. Check your answers with a partner. One of the pictures is not in this story!

Vocabulary

recess. a time at school when children play

bell. signal to start or end class

follow. walk behind someone or something

Writing

My Goals

Grammar Tip

Remember to use “going to”
with future plans.

Exercise 2. Pair work. Share your goals with a partner.
Ask: “What are your goals for this year?”

Vocabulary

goal. a plan that guides you

Language Through the Arts

Value: Road safety

There are rules to follow when we are walking to and from school

Be careful when you walk to school. These rules can save your life!

- ✓ Use crosswalks to cross a street.
- ✓ Walk on the sidewalk facing traffic so cars can see you.
- ✓ Follow traffic lights and road signs. If you need to cross a street, wait for the green light.
- ✓ Concentrate on the street. Do not look at your cell phone.
- ✗ Do not talk to strangers or get in an unfamiliar vehicle.

Exercise 1. Form groups of three. Each group should make a big poster with the list of pedestrian safety rules. You can decorate your poster with drawings or pictures from magazines.

Exercise 2. Write a paragraph. Describe what you do when you go to school.

Poem: My Good Friend

I think of you as my friend,
because together we have a good time,
you are someone I can play games with,
but without a fight or crossing the line.

You are not my twin or my cousin, but I love you so, because I know that if someone bothers me, you'll say "No."

I hope we have good memories for the rest of our lives, because smiles and funny stories...
that is what true friendship provides.

Exercise 1. What is friendship for you? Close your eyes for a moment and think of all the words you know about friends and friendship. Then, write them all in the blank spaces.

Vocabulary

fight. to use physical force with someone

twin. a brother or sister that looks exactly like you bother. to annoy someone

provide. give

Exercise 2. Now, think of your own definition for the word friend and write it down on these lines.

My School Protects the Environment

Exercise 1. Pair work. Imagine that someone asks you to create a new ecological school.

- a. Write a list of five things that you would like the school to have.
- b. Prepare a poster with your list.
- c. Present your ideas to another group or to the class and show your special “eco-friendly” school.

You can ask your group: “What does our ecological school need?” Take turns asking the question!

Assessment

Reading

Read the following description of a classroom and then draw it.

I have the best classroom in the school because I have the best teacher, Lorena! She is not only a teacher but also a writer, so the computer on the desk is hers. I have a friend called Jason. He sits next to me, and we share the sitting space, so the big desk is his too! There are some books about animals in the Reading Corner that belong to Carla and Sonia, so we can say the books are theirs. There is a girl's backpack with a drawing of a unicorn next to the door.

Listening

Listen to your teacher or to the recording and write down the words that complete each command.

Project

Make a Booklet Called
"My Classmates"

Materials

- 10 sheets of letter size paper (A4)
- 20 cm. of wool
- Scissors
- Hole puncher
- Pencil and colors

Directions

- Fold each sheet of paper in half and cut it.
- Put all the pieces together.
- Punch two holes on one side and put the wool through the holes.
- Tie it with a bow.
- On the front cover of your booklet draw a picture of yourself.
- On each page of the booklet draw a picture of one of your classmates.
- Under the picture write a sentence about that student using a verb in the present tense.

Grammar Tip

Remember the rules for the present tense:

Use -s or -es if the subject is he, she or it.
